WINSTED INTRODUCES NEW COLLABORATION TABLES

MINNEAPOLIS, March 2015 — Winsted Corporation (www.winsted.com), a worldwide leader in custom console solutions, today announced the availability of the company's new collaboration tables.

Combining furniture and technology, the collaboration tables provide schools, businesses and other types of organizations the ideal solution for exchanging ideas and encouraging collaborative solutions.

Configuration and technology options:

- Collaboration table with standard base – features a durable, high-pressure laminate top with Winsted's proprietary Safeguard Edge. Available in hundreds of top colors, the black base incorporates wire-management troughs and access panels for proper, conspicuous cable management.
- Stand-up collaboration table – offers the same features as the standard collaboration as well as a stand-up base with footrests.
- Stand-up collaboration table with monitor wall – provides all the features of the stand-up collaboration table as well as a built-in monitor wall that provides easy viewing.
- Collaboration table with recessed monitor in wall – includes the same features as the collaboration table with standard base as well as a built-in recessed monitor wall. The base additionally provides hinged doors for easy access to the wire management trough.
